

AUTODOC appoints Lennart Schmidt as CFO

In a new role: Lennart Schmidt has been CFO at AUTODOC since the beginning of the year.

Berlin, 02 February 2023 – AUTODOC, a leading online retailer of vehicle spare parts and accessories in Europe, has promoted Lennart Schmidt to the new position of Chief Financial Officer. Before this he had spent a year as Vice President Investor Relations, Financial Planning & Analysis and Treasury, a key finance position in the company. As CFO, he moves up to the Executive Leadership Team (ELT) of AUTODOC.

In his new role as CFO, the 37-year-old will be in charge of the finance division and report directly to Co-CEO Sandra Dax: "Lennart knows the company very well and is the right person to continuously develop our finance division and handle the diverse requirements of a growth-oriented company. We're glad we were able to fill this important position with an internal manager," says Dax. The new CFO succeeds the previous CFO Bert Althaus, who resigned at the end of 2022.

About AUTODOC, Lennart Schmidt says: "When I started at AUTODOC a year ago, I was very impressed by the entrepreneurial spirit and the ambitious plans for the future. And my enthusiasm for it hasn't waned in the slightest. Which makes me all the more pleased about this new role and the clear mandate to take on even more responsibility. Together with our strong team, my goal is to further professionalise the finance division and achieve AUTODOC's planned growth on the basis of a solid cost structure."

Before joining AUTODOC in January 2022, Schmidt spent two years as Head of Digital Finance at SEAT S.A. in Barcelona. Prior to that, he was responsible for investor relations for the Volkswagen Group in the Asia-Pacific region.
